

26th Annual
Peace, Justice, & Environment Conference

Encouraging the Language and Practice of Peace & Justice

Friday evening, April 29 &
Saturday, April 30, 2011

St. Camillus Roman Catholic Church
1600 Saint Camillus Dr.
Silver Spring, MD 20903-2598.

Sponsored by:

- Maryland United for Peace and Justice/Institute For Positive Action
- St. Camillus Roman Catholic Church, a multiethnic church with a strong Latino base
- Pax Christi DC Metro and Baltimore

Purpose: Words do wound! As we have seen in the last election round and more recently, rash words spoken in anger and hate can provoke violent actions. As peaceful people, we need to use language carefully to promote our vision of a peaceful and non-violent world. This conference is designed to help us achieve that goal.

From Kathryn: At 1:30PM on Saturday, April 30, I will be hosting a 3-hour workshop, Language and Politics: Changing the Frame. Please contact Paulette Hammond, below, for information on the full 2-day schedule.

REGISTRATION

Before April 20th, cost is $25; after, $30. Students and retired: $10 (Scholarships available—no one turned away for lack of funds)

Registration includes vegetarian option lunch.

Note: You may register later or on-site, but please RSVP so we can order enough food.
